

he run to you and I guess you are tired of that, I love you Fannie I love you true, and always will through this long life,

You must excuse this sorry writing as I am away from ink & pen so I use pencil, and I will be at home next Sunday and stay for some time, this is very bad writing I guess you can make it out if not ask me in your next letter and I will tell you sweet heart so I will close for this time hoping to hear from you soon and often.

Good by, Loved one.

I Remain

Yours

Walter Aubrey
